AFFORDABLE HOUSING NOW

Sustainable Australia Party is an independent community movement with a science and evidence-based approach to policy - not left or right ideology. SAP's mission is to create a fair and sustainable Australia.

To help achieve this, SAP prioritises the fight for affordable housing now, the sustainable way. Unlike all the others, SAP tackles both the major supply and demand-side issues to sustainably solve the housing crisis, stop over-development, and protect our local environments and communities. SAP's housing plan starts with more social housing, less investor tax breaks and slower migration. There's much more...
